WORLD WATER DAY 22nd Mar 2023

World Water Day is observed on March 22 each year to emphasize the significance of water and to create awareness about the global water crisis. The primary purpose of celebrating this day is to promote the achievement of SDG 6, which aims to provide access to clean water and sanitation for everyone by 2030. The day is dedicated to raising awareness about water-related issues, such as water pollution, water scarcity, insufficient water supply, and inadequate sanitation. The objective is to inspire individuals to manage freshwater resources sustainably and take necessary actions to address these issues.

“Tai Khamti Ani Books” launched

NAMSAL, March 23:

MLA, Namsai Chau Zingnu Namchoom launched the “Tai Khamti Ani Books”, produced by Khun-Ta-Nau Welfare society, Namsai in partnership with Planet Road, Pondicherry on Thursday, March 16.

This Tai Khamti book is the first of its kind in the northeast to have an animation book with subtitles in the same Tai language. The book has been sponsored by MLA, Namsai himself.

MLA in his speech lauded the team for coming up with an idea to preserve, promote and propagate the Tai Khamti language and traditions. He also mentioned that the launch of this book, will help in strategising playful approach to learning about the language, culture and traditions of Tai- Khamti society. He ensured his continued support and guidance for upcoming projects. He further advised all to enable the books to be reached out in the grass root level and suggested to display the the animated stories in Anganwadi centres and schools as a part of their curriculum.

DC, Namsai while appreciating the team, congratulated all for working on such an important subject. He said that it is a good way of adapting to the now popular digital scenario. “Children will not only learn but the book will also prove to be important for imparting language, script culture and tradition”, he said. It is a wholesome progress, he mentioned.

Earlier Nang Timita Mungyak, Vice President Kun-Ta- Nau welfare society talked about the content and objective behind development of the book . She said ANI books will come as a learning tool for children and the main focus is preserving and protection of Tai Khamti language. Furthermore it will promote literacy by making learning a fun and enjoyable experience. It can make remarkable impact on children, she added.

DA organises “Run for plastic-free Jemeithang”

JEMEITHANG, March 23: The Tawang district administration, in collaboration with the Indian Army, the Gorzang Bumtsok Committee and the Pangchen Sports Club, organised a 'Run for plastic-free Jemeithang' on Sunday, March 19 as part of the Gorzang Kora festival.

The run was flagged off by Brigadier Vikash Lal, in the presence of Jemeithang-Duitongkhar ZPM Lek Norbu, EAC (i/c) Deewan Mara, MMT Tawang unit president Pema Chowang, senior army officers, and GBs of the area.

The Indian Army and the administration facilitated visit of pilgrims and tourists to the holy tree in Khenzamani, which is believed to have been planted by the 14th Dalai Lama when he entered India after leaving his country in 1959. Pilgrims and tourists also visited the Namkha Chhu war memorial and paid respects to the martyrs of the Sino-India war.

"The district administration, in collaboration with the army, is organising trekking for pilgrims and tourists on 21 March, besides organising cultural nites, riverside traditional cuisine stall, and a free medical camp for the benefit of the villagers, tourists and pilgrims," EAC Choiki Dondup informed.

The festival is organised every year from 18-21 March at the 13th century old Gorzang stupa in Jemeithang.

SVAMITVA scheme kick starts at Ziro

ZIRO, March 23: The SVAMITVA scheme for Lower Subansiri District was kickstarted from Bamin Michi village here on March 18.

Launching the programme, Lower Subansiri Deputy Commissioner Bamin Nime sought cooperation from denizens of the district for smooth and successful conduct of the operation in the district. He also highlighted the importance of Information, Education and Communication on the occasion.

The District Land Revenue Settlement Officer Er Chaku Raju informed 19 villages of Ziro-I circle would be mapped in the first phase of the total 5000 villages to be mapped in the state.

A central sector scheme of Panchayati Raj, the SVAMITVA scheme is a reformative step towards establishment of clear ownership of property in rural inhabited (Abadi) areas by mapping of land parcels using 'Drone Technology' and providing 'record of rights' to village household owners with issuance of legal ownership cards to property owners. The scheme also carries multifarious aspects including facilitating monetization of properties and enabling bank loans, reducing property related disputes and comprehensive village level planning to achieve Gram Swaraj and Atmanirbhar in rural India.

The scheme is implemented by collaborated efforts of Ministry of Panchayati Raj, State Land Revenue Department, State Panchayati Raj Department and Survey of India.

ZPM Bamin Gumbo, Apatani Youth Association President Tapi Mali, gaon buras, gaon buris, villagers and youth of Bamin Michi village attended the programme.

Gao attends WRGC Deomali Silver Jubilee Celebration

DEOMALI, March 23:

Lok Sabha member Tapir Gao said that the Wangcha Rajkumar Government College (WRGC) here in Tirap district is playing a major role in moulding the future of the students.

Attending the silver jubilee celebration of the college on Saturday, March 18 Gao congratulated all the past and present faculty members "for rendering services to the college and producing a good number of educated youths."

"Since its establishment, the Wangcha Rajkumar Government College is doing tremendous job for the students of Tirap and Longding districts in bringing confidence and moulding the future of young students," he said.

Stating that drugs and insurgency problems are the major hindrance to the development of the TCL region, Gao urged all to fight against all such antisocial activities and to "extend cooperation to the district administrations and the security forces to curb the menaces."

Emphasising the importance of using one's mother tongue, Gao said that "mother tongue is the tool for preservation and promotion of one's own culture and traditions."

Responding to a memorandum submitted by the college's principal, the MP announced Rs 20 lakhs for construction of the college's kitchen, and another Rs 2 lakhs for tree plantation in the college campus and for a football ground.

Earlier, Gao paid homage to late Wangcha Rajkumar. He also released the souvenir 'Rang O'.

Borduria-Bogapani MLA Wanglin Lowangdong promised to continue supporting the efforts to develop the college further, saying that "the WRGC is the only college for the twin districts of Tirap and Longding."

Lowangdong said that the WRGC "can be developed as one of the premier colleges in the state if the government takes proper care of it."

DoTCL Minister Wangki Lowang commended the faculty members "for the academic achievement of the college despite tough times in the initial stage of establishment of the college at Chatjo due to security reason."

He assured to provide all possible help to further improve the college's infrastructure.

Earlier, WRGC Principal Dr Monshi Tayeng highlighted the achievements of the college in the last 25 years.

Tirap DC Hento Karga, SP Kardak Riba, Deomali ADC Vishakha Yadav, Tirap ZPC Chathong Lowang, the ZPMs of Deomali, Soha and Bari-Basip, the principal of the Deomali GHSS, village chiefs and GBs attended the function.

MLA inspects various undergoing project in Aalo

AALO, March 23:

Kento Jini, MLA Aalo East inspected various ongoing project of Aalo Township along with Penga Tato Deputy Commissioner West Siang District Aalo on Sunday March 19.

The work for widening the 'mini four-lane road', measuring 20-24 mtrs, in the township is being carried out on a war footing. Once completed, it will be the first of its kind in the state.

The MLA also inspected the work under Package 9 of the Trans-Arunachal Highway, which passes through the heart of the town. This portion of the highway is expected to be completed by June, if weather permits.

Jini also visited the under-construction outdoor stadium, the Sipu Bridge, and the agriculture market shed for vendors.

Among others, PWD EE Dugjum Lona, Power EE Kenli Tasar, and TTC director Poben Padu accompanied the MLA.

DC inspects ongoing projects

KHONSA, March 23:

Tirap Deputy Commissioner Hento Karga on Saturday, March 18 inspected various ongoing projects in the district and the proposed site for the construction of an additional health sub-centre in Makat.

In Makat, the DC interacted with the village authorities and lauded raja Wangkhom Songthing for donating land for the construction of the additional sub-centre.

Karga also inspected the Deomali CHC in the presence of DMO Dr N Lowang and MO Dr S Roy, and took stock of the health facilities available at the CHC.

Later, the DC inspected the construction of the bridge over the Bari River, and asked the work agency to complete it before the onset of monsoon or within the current month.

During the visit, the DC was accompanied by Tirap ZPC Chathong Lowang, Bari-Basip ZPM Tediap Hallang, Khonsa DPDO Hakresha Kri, SP Kardak Riba, and MO Dr Taamwang Lowang.

Seva clinic inaugurated at Seva Bhawan Pasighat

PASIGHAT, March 23:

Seva Clinic - a doctor's clinic to serve needy patients was inaugurated by Kaling Moyong, MLA Pasighat East Assembly Constituency at Seva Bhawan compound, Pasighat on March 19 in presence of Tayi Taggu, DC East Siang District. Host of other dignitaries like Oyin Gao, councillor PMC, Asar Padun, Mandal President BJP, Dr O. Moyong, vibhag Sarsangachal RSS were present on the occasion.

The clinic is an initiative of a registered NGO, Seva Bharati Arunachal Pradesh, where patients will be attended by Dr S. Bhattacha-rjee, Additional DHS (retd) at nominal fees of Rs 10/- per patient and available medicines will be provided free.

The Chief Guest, Hon. MLA, Kaling Moyong termed the initiative as one of a kind where only motive of the clinic is to serve the needy and hoped the citizens make good use of it. He also informed that Healthcare infrastructure in Pasighat during his term as MLA will undergo a major boost as State Government under CM Pema Khandu has announced a 300 bedded hospital and a Critical Care Unit for emergency patients at Pasighat, the work for which will start very soon.

Attending the programme as guest of honour, DC Pasighat Tayi Taggu appreciated the noble initiative and suggested the clinic could make good use of the PM Jan Aushadhi scheme by providing patients with good quality medicines at cheaper costs.

Eastern Army Commander calls on the Governor

ITANAGAR, March 23:

Lt. General R.P. Kalita, UYSM, AVSM, SM, VSM, General Officer Commanding-in-Chief (GOC-in-C), Eastern Command called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General K.T. Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 17th March 2023. They discussed security and welfare related issues.

The Governor complimented the GOC-in-C for the high operational readiness and morale of the troops deployed on the Line of Actual Control. He also complimented the Eastern Army for maintaining friendly relations with the Civil Administration and fostering goodwill amongst people residing in the border areas.

The Governor discussed joint efforts of the Army and the State to enable development and consolidation of the border villages, enhancing their livelihood and ensuring security of the borders.

The Governor suggested the GOC-in-C for pre-recruitment rallies and motivational camps for the youth of the State in the Agniveer Recruitment with special focus in the three districts of Tirap, Longding and Changlang. He said that such initiatives will give impetus to the efforts of the Central and State Government in bringing an end to the militancy in the area.

The Governor also suggested for procurement of perishable items requirements of the Army deployed in Arunachal Pradesh, from the local farmers, which will enhance the local economy and also augment the goodwill amongst the people.

The Governor, on behalf of the people of the State, conveyed condolences through the GOC-in-C to bereaved families of the deceased pilot Lt. Col VVB Reddy and co-pilot Major Jayanth A of Army Aviation, who died in the line of duty. Their commitment to their duties and supreme sacrifice will be always remembered by the people of the State, he said.

Earlier, the GOC-in-C, who is the overall head of the Army formation in the Eastern Region, briefed the Governor about the preparedness of the armed forces.

Forest fires in Chimi area doused

ITANAGAR, March 23:

The team led by ADC Shweta Nagarkoti as Incident Commander and comprising of officers and staffs from Fire and Emergency Services, Forest, SDRF, Panchayat leaders and locals managed to douse the forest fire at Chimi area on Thursday, March 16, believed to have originated from burning of nearby farm that intensified due to heavy thunderstorm in the Capital Region on 12th March last.

The ADC informed that a team comprising of Fire and Emergency Services, Forest, Panchayat leaders and locals moved towards the forest at 7am today and managed to cross the difficult terrain and doused the fire at various locations. The 2nd team with manpower from SDRF, Fire and Emergency Services, Forest, Panchayat leaders and locals moved towards another location at 11.30 am from another route as it was inaccessible for the 1st team to reach there. The 2nd team also managed to douse off the fire and the task was completed by 1.30 pm today.

The DC Capital Itanagar Sachin Rana in an emergency meeting convened on March 15, stressed that every efforts have to be put together to control the fire no matter how difficult the terrain is. He had stressed that it is our responsibility to ensure that the fire doesn't spread further and for that any means of additional requirement has to be put in place and accordingly letters for requisition were placed yesterday to SDRF and helicopter services with buckets.

The DC lauded the team for putting in their best effort to complete the task.

He has also thanked the panchayat leaders and the locals for their support and cooperation.

Even though the fire has been doused off completely but the possibility of fire in few pockets of the difficult terrain cannot be ruled out completely, the DC has therefore asked the locals and Forest Officials to remain alert as District Administration is ready with men and machineries to tackle any such eventuality.

The DC has once again appealed to the denizens of Capital Itanagar to remain alert and to inform the District Administration, Disaster Management, Department or the Police whenever such incidents occur so that early measures could be adopted to tackle such events.

Mithun Health Camp organized at Adi Pasi village

PASIGHAT, March 22:

Indian Council of Agricultural Research-National Research Centre (ICAR-NRC) on Mithun Medziphema Nagaland in collaboration with East Siang Ato Dorne Farmer's Association (ADFA) on Wednesday organized a Mithun Health camp at Adi Pasi village (Sibuk), 65 Kms off Pasighat, under Popom Circle, Upper Siang district.

Upper Siang DVO Dr. Emo Lego and Popom Circle Officer Jyoti Borang graced the occasion as Chief Guest and Guest of Honour.

Officials of ICAR-NRC on Mithun apprised the gathering about the several initiatives of the Institute towards popularizing scientific semi-intensive rearing of mithun and its conservation, displayed its technologies and package of practices and distributed input under Thrift Saving Plant (TSP) programme.

Several competitions were also organized to adjudge the best mithun bulls dam and mithun heifers etc. Reportedly farmers brought more than 36 mithuns to the camp site and out of them five owners were felicitated.

While inaugurating the camp, DVO Dr. Lego and CO Borang lauded the efforts of ICAR-NRC on Mithun in popularizing the scientific rearing of mithun and organizing such events regularly in the area and urged the farmers to adopt the scientific rearing of mithun for more profit. The duo expressed their happiness on the initiatives of ICAR-NRC in creating awareness among the farmers, adding that mithun was an integral part of socio-economic life and pride of Arunachalees.

They appreciated Presidents of Ato Dorne Farmers Association (ADFA) of East Siang and Adi Pasi Allek Perme and Katem Yomso respectively and their associates for organizing the camp at Adi Pasi village in a befitting manner and motivating the farmers to bring a large number of mithun in the camp. Both the dignitaries advised the mithun owners to take adequate and appropriate care of mithuns and suggested for timely vaccination against FMD and BQ and laid stress the need for use of improved mithun bulls as well as the exchange of bulls with the neighboring villages to avoid inbreeding.

Among others, East Siang ADFA Chief Advisor Nonggam Rukbo and Adi Pasi ADFA Secretary Apek Moyong also spoke on the occasion.

During the interaction, the need of regular vaccination, supplementation with the mineral mixture, use of good bulls and conservation of the biggest bulls for breeding purpose, diversified use of mithun as a source of meat, milk, leather as well draft were elaborated.

France Consul General keen to forge collaboration with Arunachal Pradesh

ZIRO, March 22:

The Consul General of France in Kolkata, Didier Henri Marie Talpain expressed keen interest to forge collaboration with Arunachal Pradesh in various areas which are feasible and mutually beneficial to both France and Arunachal Pradesh.

During a one-day tour to Ziro Valley yesterday, the Consul General said, France and Arunachal Pradesh could build collaboration in Sports Management, Higher Education and Sustainable Tourism. He asked the Lower Subansiri District Administration to prepare draft projects in these areas pertaining to Ziro valley.

While thanking the people of Ziro and Arunachal Pradesh for their warm hospitality, the Consul General advised the local people to be proud of their tradition but to think for the future as well.

During his tour to the valley, the Consul General was received at Subansiri Sadan, the official residence of Lower Subansiri Deputy Commissioner by local legislator and Minister Agriculture, Horticulture Er.Tage Taki and DC Bamin Nime along with few Heads of Departments.

The Consul General was then shown the District Museum, the Seeh water conservation and recreational lake where they took a boat ride around the lake, and taken a tour of Hong, Mudang Tage, Dutta and Hija villages.

A lunch was arranged at another water conservation and recreational Siikhey Lake where few cultural items from both Apatani and Nyishi tribes were showcased.

Later, a live display of 'Boha Beni' or the acrobatic swinging by courageous persons on the 'Babo' or wooden pole erected during the ongoing Myoko Festival was displayed at Lempia village. A 'walk the talk' around Bulla village was also undertaken to get a feel of the festival organized by Hari and Bulla villages this year. The guests were then treated with Apatani hospitality by a village host and DMO Dr.Tage Kanno at his Tajang village residence after which they departed back to Itanagar.

The Consul General was accompanied by Consular Attache Adrien Yves Hubert Blanchard and Press Attache and Diplomatic Liaise Anjita RoyChaudhary during the trip.

Awareness programme on Crimes against Women held

TAWANG, March 23: 17 Mar:

An awareness programme on 'Crimes against Women, PWDV Act 2005, PoSH Act 2013 and Mission Shakti', organised here by the Tawang ICDS project on Friday, March 17.

Addressing the participants, ICDS CDPO Dondup Pema said that, "due to awareness programmes, and with the functioning of the one-stop centre (OSC), aggrieved women have been benefitted, but the number of registered cases of domestic violence in Tawang has increased."

She further said that "reports of cases related to sexual harassment at workplace are also being received by the internal complaint committee."

OSC administrator Tsering Bhuti and advocates Rinchin Wangmo and Sonam Zangmu spoke on domestic violence, domestic relationship, emotional and economic violence, protection of women from sexual harassment at workplace, and women's rights.

Presiding officers, members of the internal complaint committee constituted under the PoSH Act, Additional SP Thuptan Jambay, and women police officers and officials attended the meeting.

Vice Chancellor Prof Riba felicitated by PBBK

PASIGHAT, March 23:

The Pertin Bodum Baane Kebang (PBBK) offered warm reception to the newly inducted Vice Chancellor (VC) of Arunachal State University Dr. Tomo Riba and her better half at the university campus at Pasighat.

The President PBBK Apex Bijoy Pertin and Women Wing (ANE OBAK) President Oming Jamoh Pertin along with senior citizens and executive members met and extended warm welcome to the newly inducted VC of the state government's lone and first University, next to the central university, RGU at the state capital.

The representatives of the clan welfare organization expressed hope that with the new VC, peaceful environment and eco-friendly campus will prove to be a mesmerizing experience for a well-rounded educational experience. It will not only positively impact professional careers, but will also significantly contribute to each student's physical, cognitive, and intellectual growth.

"We are confident that the University will provide every student with ample opportunities of boundless growth through inter-curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities", they stated adding that the State University will soon become a 'Centre of Educational Excellence' under the dynamism of Prof Dr. Riba with the optimum potential to nurture independent thinkers and most importantly good human beings to a well-trained human capital.

Overwhelmed Prof. Riba on the occasion stated that in his journey as Vice-Chancellor of this prestigious University, he finds himself well-equipped to take up all challenges towards streamlining all aspects and aspirations in a desirably better direction. He takes this opportunity to mobilize all stakeholders to move ahead with great synergy, hope, and positivity towards achieving the goal as per our roadmap.
