DC prohibits swimming activities and fishing at Pare reservoir

DOIMUMKH, July 4:

Deputy Commissioner Shri Cheechung Chukhu of Papum Pare has prohibited swimming activities and illegal fishing in the Pare dam reservoir during a meeting with shopkeepers and resort owners along the Pare Reservoir at Pare Hut Resort, Hara-Hapa on Tuesday. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss safety measures for visitors and tourists.

The resorts and restaurants along the Pare reservoir attract a large number of visitors, especially during the summer, as they seek to escape the heat of the capital city.

During the meeting, Deputy Commissioner Chukhu informed the attendees about a standing order issued by the District Administration on June 15th. The order specifically prohibits illegal boating and fishing activities in the reservoir. He strongly urged resort owners to prioritize the safety of their customers and strictly prohibit swimming, boating, and fishing in the reservoir.

In addition, he advised the owners to have fire extinguishers available at their shops and resorts to prevent and manage unforeseen fire accidents. Furthermore, he suggested improving the aesthetics of the area along the Doimukh-Potin Highway near the Pare Reservoir, including villages such as Sopo, Jampa, Hara-Hapa, up to Hoj, and assured them of providing plantation materials for this purpose.

DC Chukhu also urged shopkeepers and resort owners to adhere to trade license guidelines and refrain from engaging in illegal trade activities. He was accompanied by Shri Tai Arun, Trade Development Officer, and other officials.

HCM Pema Khandu Encourages Rural Empowerment and Digital Transformation

Itanagar, July 05:

Chief Minister Pema Khandu today held a day-long interaction session with officials of the Arunachal State Rural Livelihoods Mission (ArSRLM), District Mission Management Units (DMMU), Block Mission Management Units (BMMUs) and representatives of SHGs, Primary Level Federations (PLFs) and Cluster Level Federations (CLFs) in presence of Rural Development & Panchayati Raj Minister Bamang Felix and his Advisor Gum Tayeng.

Acknowledging the tremendous growth of SHGs, especially those led by women-folk, across the state in recent years, Khandu appreciated officials of the ArSRLM, DMMUs and BMMUs for their dedication to empower people at the grass-root level through convergence of various rural development schemes of the centre as well as the state.

"Despite starting late, the fact that today we have total 9301 SHGs, 851 Primary Level Federations and 27 Cluster Level Federations in the state is a testament to the dedication and sincerity of our ArSRLM officials, both at the state level and district and block levels," he said.

Urging members of the SHGs, PLFs and CLFs to take advantage of digital technology to further their enterprises and start-ups, Khandu assured full cooperation from the state government.

In order to train them on using digital platform to market their produces globally, Khandu suggested a training program to be conducted by the state government by roping in some top experts in the field from outside the state.

National Doctors' Day

In our nation, on the 1st of July, we come together to celebrate National Doctors' Day. This significant day is dedicated to commemorating the birth and death anniversary of a truly remarkable individual, Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy. A distinguished physician and the second Chief Minister of West Bengal, Dr. Roy left an indelible mark on the medical profession and played a crucial role in India's Independence Movement.

Established by the Central Government in 1991, National Doctors' Day stands as an annual remembrance, acknowledging the invaluable contributions made by doctors throughout our history. Dr. Roy, a recipient of the prestigious Bharat Ratna award in 1961, is a shining example of a healthcare professional whose tireless efforts revolutionized medical facilities in India.

On this special day, we reflect upon the vital role doctors play in our society, earning them the title of being next to God. Their dedication and selflessness in preserving and promoting the well-being of individuals is truly commendable. Doctors are not merely healthcare providers but also compassionate healers, always ready to extend a helping hand to those in need. As we observe National Doctors' Day, let us take a moment to appreciate the boundless compassion, skill, and knowledge that doctors bring to their profession. They serve as beacons of hope, illuminating the path to better health and brighter futures. Their selfless service knows no boundaries, transcending age, gender, or social status.

The West Siang ATA District Unit led by Mardo Bogo President, Kejum Rime General Secretary and Members conveyed their heartfelt condolences to the bereaved family and pray for the eternal peace of the departed soul.

Eco-system Among Farmers Needed For Their Chartered Growth And Progress: Taki

Ziro, July 03:

In order to streamline the growth, progress and benefits due to farmers, a chain of eco-system within their fraternity is need of the hour which would channelize their hard work commensurate with the incentives provided by the Govt, said Agriculture and allied Minister Er. Tage Taki here yesterday.

Inaugurating a pack house at the kiwi orchard of renowned kiwi grower of Ziro Valley Hage Tara at Dibub, the Minister urged the farmers to combine the wisdom of both the old and young generation farmers to find better and practical solutions in the field of horticulture to maximize their efforts and returns.

Appreciating and acknowledging the pioneering efforts of Hage Tara in the field of Horticulture, Taki said I know Hage Tara for the past 15 to 20 years who has been putting in lots of pioneering efforts in the field of horticulture particularly in kiwi plantation which has made Ziro Valley the largest producer of kiwi in India and famous globally. Further, the Minister informed that Tara had planted 20 varieties of exotic imported varieties of fruits on experimental basis at his orchard which was exemplary and encouraging to upcoming young farmers of the District and the state.

Agreeing to the need of a 'cold storage' at the District Hq, the Minister said that a farm-end solar based cold storage would be more ideal for a place like Ziro rather than the power-driven conventional cold storage.

Lower Subansiri Deputy Commissioner Bamin Nime emphasized on the need for 'vocal for local' and urged the local unemployed youth to take up farming seriously to earn their livelihoods. Some of our unemployed youth can take up horticulture farming and set up MSME units to produce kiwi wine, juice and dried fruits which are in high demands within and outside the state, he said, while pledging Rs one lakh from his untied fund for maintenance of Tara's farm.

The pack house costing

Rs 5 lacs was constructed under Rastriya Krishi Vikash Yojana-Remunerative Approaches for Agriculture and Allied Sector Rejuvenation (RKVY-RAFTAAR)-CSS Scheme sanctioned during 2023-24.

Meanwhile, Hage Tara informed that Ziro Valley with an ideal geographical height elevation was best suited for cultivation of kiwi and eastern fruits. My orchard is located at 2000 mtrs above sea level while average elevation height of Ziro Plateau is 3000 mtrs above sea level which is best suited for kiwi and eastern fruits cultivation, he explained, while expressing gratefulness to the State Govt. for encouraging farmers like him by providing Govt. incentives.

The inauguration programme organized at Dibub jungle located 20 kms away from Hapoli township was organized by Agriculture Department led by District Agriculture Officer Tasso Butung and attended by other Departmental heads, ZPM's and progressive farmers.

RTI Act-2005 Has Heralded Positive Change in AP: CIC Rinchin Dorjee

Ziro, July 01:

The Right to Information Act-2005 has heralded many positive changes in the state after its inception, said State Information Commission Chief Information Commissioner Rinchin Dorjee here today.

Addressing the One-Day Awareness Training Programme on RTI Act-2005 at Abotani Hall here today, the CIC said the RTI Act-2005 is a 'citizen friendly' mechanism devised by Govt. in the interest of the citizens. Govt. officials are public servants whose duty is to serve the public. Public interest ought to be the top most priority and Govt. officials must strive to fulfill the aspirations of the citizens, he remarked.

CIC Rinchin Dorjee also elaborated that the Act had been devised in larger interest of the citizens and appealed the participants to use the Act rationally and judiciously for welfare of the state rather than for personal gains.

SIC Commissioner Sonam Yudron dwelt at length on Chapter-2 Sections 3 to 7 of the Act and explained briefly the RTI Act-2005, its filing process, role of Public Information Officer, Assistant Public Information Officer, suo-moto disclosures of information and categories of information exempted from furnishing to the appellant. Sonam also informed the process and time period of approaching an officer higher than the PIO or the SIC in case of refusal by the concerned PIO to furnish the information or willful delay in furnishing of the same.

Explaining Chapter-2 Sections 8 to 10 of the Act, SIC Commissioner Gumjum Haider said the Act had been devised and envisioned to help the citizens and to root out corruption from the system. He also explained in detail the categories of information to be revealed and exempted from revealing, the grounds for rejection of certain information sought, disclosure of information provided to CPIO or PIO by a third party and its time frame.

SIC Commissioner Genom Tekseng explained Chapter-5 Sections 18 of the Act dealing with the powers, functions, appeals and penalties available with the SIC.

In his introductory speech, APIC Registrar Taro Mize informed similar Awareness Training Programme had been organized at Namsai and other places in the state. The Registrar said many officers were not well acquainted with the rules and manuals of RTI Act-2005 and urged them to update themselves.

Thanking Lower Subansiri District Administration for conducting the Awareness Training Programme at the District Headquarters, the APIC Registrar further said the RTI Act-2005 is basically meant to facilitate providing information to citizens for good governance and to lead people in right direction.

Underscoring the importance of the Act in facilitating accountability, transparency and efficient administration, Lower Subansiri Deputy Commissioner Bamin Nime urged to strike a healthy balance between the PIO's and RTI activists. So many RTI activists are mushrooming up in the state. Genuine information seekers need to be chaffed out from the fake and malafide information seekers else there would be chaos, he said, while pleading the Commission to come up with a mechanism to curb the souring menace.

CIC Rinchin Dorjee summed up the training programme while Lower Subansiri ADC (Hq.) Mollo Kojin offered the vote of thanks.

More than 100 participants including PIO's, APIC's and officials from the Districts of Lower Subansiri, Kamle, Kra-Dadi, Kurung Kumey and few RTI activists participated at the day-long training programme. An intense 'Open-House Discussion' involving the participants and the APIC team was the special charm of the programme where all doubts pertaining to RTI Act-2005 were cleared on the spot.

Training on Effective Use of Social Media for Government Communications Conducted for Officers of DIPR office

Itanagar, June 30:

A workshop on the effective use of social media for government communications was organized by Delhi based Public Relations firm GreyMatters Communication & Consulting Pvt Ltd at the Soochna Bhawan, DIPR Office in Naharlagun. The workshop aimed to enhance the skills of officers from the Directorate of Information and Public Relations, Government of Arunachal Pradesh, in utilizing social media platforms for efficient government communication.

The main objective of the workshop was to know the ways of highlighting good governance and welfare focus of government, reviewing social media processes and protocols being used in government communications, to equip officers with new tools and techniques, to highlight how to track and address grievances online and to share best practices.

The Director IPR said that the workshop would go a long way in building confidence and improving efficiency of the IPR Officers in handling and using social media as a tool of government communications.

He expressed his gratitude towards the state government for taking the initiative of facilitating such beneficial workshop. Further he said that since connectivity was among the most significant benefits of social media, we should make the optimal use of it for the benefit of each and every one.

Dr. Navneet Anand, a renowned expert in the field, began the session by acknowledging the growth of Arunachal Pradesh in recent years. He emphasized that the workshop would play a crucial role in further developing the working processes of government communication. Dr. Anand highlighted the democratization of information, stating that every individual has become a news creator in today's digital age. He emphasized that the increased responsiveness of society necessitates the introduction of new patterns for disseminating press releases through social media, and the participants would learn together in this regard.

During the session, Dr. Anand provided insights into the concept of "less is more," which stands for Learning, Exchanging, Scaling, and Synchronizing. He discussed the evolution of government communication since 1923 and highlighted the transformative changes in media and audience expectations. Dr. Anand emphasized that social media platforms enable seamless conversations with the public and rapid information dissemination. He underscored the potential of social media to accelerate the diffusion of information, ideas, practices, values, and social norms that support positive change. The impact of social media on government communication was thoroughly explored. Additionally, the attendees were taught how to discern fake news and educated on the importance of social media in the modern communication landscape.

The training session commenced with interactive activities and a quiz game, fostering engagement and knowledge-sharing among the attendees.

The workshop saw the participation of prominent individuals from the Directorate of Information and Public Relations which included DIPROs and DIPRO ic, APROs and other staff.

earth. Furthermore he made a clarification call to all the HoDs/HoOs to make concerted efforts to plant trees in their offices and quarter campuses.

The department issued saplings to the school authority and requested that every student plant and adopt a sapling till it is well acclimated to the new environment.

APO & OCWWB Distributes Statutory Benefits

Ziro, June 30:

Statutory benefits were distributed to beneficiaries of Arunachal Pradesh Building & Other Construction Worker's Welfare Board (APO&OCWWB) by Lower Subansiri Deputy Commissioner at Civil Secretariat Conference Hall here today.

18 beneficiaries of Lower Subansiri District were distributed Rs 5,57,000/- as education scholarships and death benefits. The amount distributed to 16 beneficiaries as education scholarships to children of the workers registered under APO&OCWWB to pursue their higher educations within and outside the state ranged from rupees twenty thousand to rupees forty thousand while Rs 51,000/- and 1,01,000/- were distributed as death benefits to children of two dead workers of the District.

The statutory benefits were distributed for the second time at the District Hq. after the process got decentralized. An amount of Rs 7,90,000/- had been distributed to 31 beneficiaries in April last.

The cheques were handed over to beneficiaries by DC Bamin Nime in presence of APO&OCWWB, Ziro Registering Officer Tage Tupe and other officials.

Speaking on the occasion, DC Bamin Nime advised the workers to avail Govt. devised social security insurance schemes available for benefit of the workers and marginalized sections of the society whose premiums are low but returns come handy in times of accidents and deaths of the bread earners. The DC further highlighted the importance of skilled workforce and urged the workers to get skilled in their chosen field of activity to earn their livelihoods rightfully. We have to import labour force from outside the state such as mason, plumber, painter, carpenter etc. which are highly paid jobs. It would be better if our unemployed youth get skilled and take up such jobs thus saving our money from draining outside our state, he explained.

Seppa, June 30:

District Administration Seppa and Urban Development Department, in collaboration with various NGOs have launched 3 days social service from 30th June to 2nd July 2023 under the banner "CLEAN SEPPA DRIVE". Along with Sh. Sachin Rana, Deputy Commissioner, various officers, officials, NGOs, CRPF, public have joined the social service.

Shri Tarh Hachey, EE UD, informed that the Material Recovery Facility (MRF), which was sanctioned by Government since 2019 could not be constructed since past 2 years due to various hurdles from public in land acquisition process. As there was lack of MRF, garbage was not lifted on regular basis. However, with the intervention of Honorable Minister Shri Mama Natung, Honorable MLAs of Seppa, Shri Anchu Rimo ZPM, Matem Abo society, NGO etc. a land was donated by Shri Sajo Rimo for construction of MRF at Pampoli. The MRF centre has been completed recently and the department will lift the garbage on regular basis. The EE has extended his heartfelt gratitude for cooperation of all the stakeholders in making the MRF construction successful.

Teacher's Coordination meet for Revamping Education of Papum Pare (rural) held

Seppa, June 30:

A Coordination meeting of all the teachers of Papum Pare, (Rural) was held at the community hall Rono, Doimukh on Saturday. The meeting with the objective of revamping the education scenario by discussing the challenges and exploring solutions witnessed participation of more than 400 teachers from across the district.

Teacher representatives from different blocks shared their perspectives on the current state of education and addressed concerns regarding the quality of education; including lack of professionalism among teachers, inadequate infrastructure, lack of basic seating and toilet facilities for students, teacher student ratio, poor enrolments and rationalization of teachers.

Suggestions were made to improve management, introduce separate teachers for pre-primary education, provide substitutes for maternity leaves and install GPS in schools so that functional schools could be identified.

Addressing the congregation of teachers Deputy Commissioner Shri Cheechung Chukhu said that "the teachers play an integral role in a student's life by providing support, developing knowledge and skills and cultivating curiosity and creativity. Teachers therefore have to be approachable, accommodating and dedicated in their teaching."

He also emphasised on the importance of co-curriculum activities for the' all round development of the students 'and added that 'he will ensure it is implemented in all the schools.'

DC Chukhu further acknowledged the role of teachers as "crucial in the life of the students and the society and advised them to lead by example".

Taking note of few irregular teachers whose performances have been far below the targets, he warned of strict actions if "they don't mend ways".

Shri T.T. Tara, DDSE called for discipline, sincerity and determination among teachers. He also said that "motivating the students to perform well in life is the duty of teachers."

Shri Nakha Nabam Hina, Professor, RGU encouraged the teachers to keep learning to be mentally agile and respond effectively to the young students.

He further encouraged the teachers to be attentive to the needs of the students and focus on their personal growth rather than blaming others.

Shri Nabam Ado (President, AASSATA) and Shri R.K Rob (President, ATA) also spoke on the occasion.

On the occasion BK Mission School, Midpu and Government Middle School, Doimukh were awarded for their exceptional academic performance.

Commendation certificates were also awarded to Smti. Debia Meyung, TGT, Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Aswasia Vidyalaya (NSCBV), Pang under Mengio Circle, Shri Amen Takio, PRT, (NSCBV), Nyopang under Silsange Circle and Shri Nabam Raja, PRT, Govt. Five month training course of 5th batch horticulture field staff concludes successfully

Pasighat, July 04:

The five month Foundation Certificate Training Course for Horticulture Field Staff, 5th batch which started on 15th of February 2023 at GTC Pasighat from various districts of Arunachal Pradesh concluded successfully today.

After successful completion of the training program a Valedictory function was organized by District Horticulture Officer (DHO) Pasighat, in the Mushroom Training Hall.

During the five month training period, the trainees were imparted in depth theoretical and practical aspects of horticultural science. Later during the interaction session, the trainees shared that the training had enriched their know how and practical applications of Horticulture farming.

ADC Pasighat Oli Perme who attended the program as Guest of Honor, encouraged the trainee staffs to keep up their learning curve for self betterment and progress of community, society and nation as a whole. Speaking on the need to establish a Training Institute, as there is bright prospect of establishing a training institute in the District with its available pool of resources from two colleges under CAU, KVK and GTC was expressed by her. She also, spoke about importance of imparting periodic and regular training to field staffs, so that new insights in horticulture subjects could be gathered and adoption of new technologies for better remuneration from horticulture related activity could be made possible.

Dr. BN Hazarika, Dean, College of Horticulture and Forestry who graced the occasion as Chief Guest exhorted the field staffs to work with dedicated and sincerity towards their profession to boost the Horticulture sector and for benefit of farmers. He also added that Arunachal Pradesh with its vast naturally gifted resources is a sleeping giant in the field of horticulture.

Vote of thanks was offered by Shri Oyin Tayeng HDO who expressed his heartfelt gratitude to the entire guest and the trainees for making the program a successful one.
